Calmer Of The Storm

Downhere

When everything is wrong
The day has passed and nothing's done
And the whole world seems against me
When I'm rolling in my bed, there's a storm in my head
I'm afraid of sinking in despair.[Chorus]
Teach me, Lord to have faith
In what you're bringing me will Change my life and bring you glory
There on the storm I am learning to let go
Of the will that I so long to control
There may I be in your arms eternally
I thank you, Lord, you are the calmer of the storm.You rebuke the wind and the waves
Once again I find I'm amazed, the power of your will 'Cause I'm a child of little faith
I feel the wind and forget your grace
And you say, "Peace, be still."[Chorus]And oh, when a torment blows
The middle of the sea
May I have never trust, never trust in me
'Cause There in your arms I find no tragedyThere on the storm I am learning to let go
The white waves high, it's crashing over the deck
And I don't know where I go
Where are you Lord, is this ship going down?
The mast is gone so throw this anchor
Should I jump and try to swim to land?There on the storm, teach me God to understand
Of your Will that I just cannot control
There may I see all your love protecting me
I thank you Lord, you are the calmer of the storm.

Songwriters
MARTEL, MARC A./GERMAIN, JASON RONALD WILLIAMPublished by Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/