

Sinkinâ€™™ In

Cody Simpson

He dropped the bait
, into the ocean of the summer love, and now he waits for the moment i've been dreaming of,
A clean slate on the heart of which he desecrates, It's too late for me now, I said i wanna roll over but i gotta lean back,
Give it some time so that i can relax,
I'm outta my mind im
'bout to have a relapse,
Oh how im sinking in,
La la la la
la la la la
la la la la
oh how im sinking in,
I lie awake,
Watching every moment be replay,
Counting my mistakes,
The clock is tickin' eating me away,
For your own sake,
Stop with giving and begin to take,
While i wait for you now,
I said i wanna roll over but i gotta lean back,
Give it some time so that i can relax,
I'm outta my mind im
'bout to have a relapse,
Oh how im sinking in,
La la la la
la la la la
la la la la
oh how im sinking in, x2
If only you could understand me, But you don't you won't i need you to,
After all this time i'll wait up now for you and i oh yeah
I said i wanna roll over but i gotta lean back,
Give it some time so that i can relax,

I'm outta my mind im 'bout to have a relapse,

Oh how im sinking in,

La la la la

la la la la

la la la la oh how im sinking in, X2

La la la la

la la la la oh how im sinking in, X4
