Broken

Eva Under Fire

Broken

You're better off
Than there
Innocence
Is air
Never knowing what you
Didn't ever need to
Way before you knew the way back home

Broken hearts
Broken mind
And still I try
Still I try

You're better off
She said
Innocence
Is dead
Never knowing what you
Didn't ever mean to
Way before you knew the way back home

Broken hearts
Broken mind
And still I try
Still I try
Fight for love
Don't ask why
And Still I try
Still I try

I come undone
