

Contradiction

Jessica Childress

Verse 1:

How can you run
When you can't even stand
How can you speak
When i know you don't comprehend

Thats just your choice
Its not my ideal
But you gotta play with the cards you've been handed and,
Contradiction suits you well, yeah, oh

Verse 2:

If you could just listen for once baby
If you could open up, your mind
To actually hear what im saying,
I, think that we'd be just fine

But that's just your choice
It's not my ideal
You gotta play with the cards you've been handed and,
Contradiction suits you well,
yeah, mmh, no.

[Instrumental]

Gotta play, with the cards, ooh

No,

Verse 3:

Why should i stay
When i know you don't want me here
No its not what you said
But you made it so very clear

That this is your choice
It's not my ideal, no
But i gotta play with the cards i've been handed and,
I can't stand still,
Anymore

Outro:
Anymore (x2)
