Raven (Lost Master)

Charlotte Martin

Kings to follow child to teach
Fools to swallow girl is fast asleep
Statue stare place to reach
Watching Jeffrey fall asleepDaddy hugs dogs to walk
Books to lug
Hands to talk a fever in my naive brain
Not wanting things to be the sameOnce I had a dream, once I had a dream
I dreamt the dream in green, grass greenRamen noodle, black haired poodle
Hansel, Gretel, how we hate them
Funny, sunny, smart ass, honey
Different scary black died hairyOnce I had a dream, once I had a dream
I dreamt the dream in green, grass greenI'm addicted to your spirit, Raven
Forget the operas we sang
I'm warped in your personality and
I wonder if I'll see you on LettermanRamen noodle, black haired poodle
Hansel, Gretel, how we hate them
Funny, sunny, smartass, honey
Different scary black died hairyMy friend Raven
My friend RavenI'm obsessed with your addictions raven
Forget the Mardi Gras we drank
I understand that you were saying you're afraid of The second comingBut fear of flying you're denying Raven
Fear of flying you're denying Raven

Songwriters
Martin Charlotte AnnPublished by WORD TREE MUSIC;CHRYSALIS ONE SONGS, LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/