I

Samael

All hail, hail me back feel my aim look through me now come to me, fly in me get on the top and throw it down my soul I burn it all here comes the sunAsk your goal to lead your dream stay on the line speak the truth walk my path bright and clear I lead your soul I send you through send a prayer to those who felt Peace & Love in der Welt read me well between the lines for I'm what I meant to beforgive me now forget me not hold your fight take that light we don't need another war let shine inside what we send you hereall I heal, heal me back let heaven shine on all my sins turn the wheel move your will to where your wish is guided to just wait for a while till what you ask comes down your wayAsk your goal to lead your dream stay on the line speak the truth
send a prayer to those who felt
for I'm what I meant to bewhat I meant to be...
