

Year Of The Rat

Badly Drawn Boy

One, one, one, one, one, one
One, one, one, one, one, one June is on the run for so long
Pushed and pulled then shunned, it was so wrong
These four walls crashing in won't stop me now
'Cause I'm alive, I'm out tonight all night Everybody needs to know it's the year of the rat
Every day we've got to hold on
'Cause if we hold on we could find some new energy Streets with flags unfurled like treasure
Thank me for my words, it's a pleasure
Just don't ask me to stay 'cause I'll be gone
But it's alright, I'm okay always Everybody needs to know it's the year of the rat
Every day we've got to hold on
'Cause if we hold on we could find some new energy One plus one is one, together
One plus one is one, forever
One plus one is one, together
One plus one is one, forever Everybody needs to know it's the year of the rat
Everybody needs to know it's the year of the rat
Everybody needs to know it's the year of the rat Everybody needs to know it's the year of the rat
Every day we've got to hold on
'Cause if we hold on we could find some new energy "One plus one plus one plus one is four" "One"
"Plus one"
"Plus one"
"Plus one"
"Four"
