

Operation Eagle Lie

Asian Dub Foundation

Lies, damn lies and statistics
Fitting up and stitching up
Down at ballisticsThe back of the van
It ain't used for seating
Just check through the window
The youth, them get a beatingMeet PC PR the designer policeman
Putting up a smokescreen with his multicolored truncheon
Shake a few bad apples off the long arm of the law
But he knows and we know that it's rotten to the core
He knows and we know that it's rotten to the core
Rotten to the coreBlack man on a double yellow
Yeah, he's a criminal, a racial attack
Investigation minimal
You'll always find us on the end of a baton
When the black meets the blue
You know who's getting spat onNow I'm giving to you and I am driving into you
The truth, no number crunching
It's just your mind that were muggingADF, taking them on at I-spy
Watching them, watching us
Operation eagle lie
Watching them, watching us
Operation eagle lieUnity is strength and strength is unity
IC1, IC2 and also IC3
Altogether we can defend all of the community
One people, all nations, fi reach their destinyBefore the Devil man used to use the truncheon
Kill the black man is still his dream ambition
Now they have swat batons and CCTV
For unusual people just like you and meYoung sisters and brothers dying from heart attacks
But how can we breathe when the beast is on our back
CS gas in your lungs, eyes and your mouth
Just another police murder, [Incomprehensible]CPS is the piggy's alibi
None of them are ever prepared to be the fall guy
ADF, taking them on at I-spy
Watching them, watching us
Operation eagle lieNow I'm giving to you and I am driving into you
The truth, no number crunching
It's just your mind that were muggingADF, taking them on at I-spy
Watching them, watching us
Operation eagle lie[Incomprehensible]
