

I Know You, I Live You (Reprise Version)

Chaka Khan

It's not difficult for me
To say I love you
It wouldn't be difficult
If you would say the same
And believe me when I tell you
That I know you very well
I know you like I know my name I think that I have met you
Somewhere in my dreams
I may never have met you at all
And I know you must be thinking
"What a silly girl"
I know your every thought and scheme I wake up to the feeling each morning
I go to bed to it at night
I know you, I love you Like I feel a song in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
I know you as if I've known you all my life
I know you, I live you One day you'll realize
That we're not strangers
You open up your eyes
You'll know me too
And see that we were
Meant to be together, my dear
And all the rest is up to you I wake up to the feeling each morning
I go to bed to it at night
I know you, I love you Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
I feel you as if you were a part of me
I know you, I know you
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
I think I know you more than you know yourself
I know you, I live you
Know you, live you
Know you, live you
Know you And without me you'd stumble
And without you I'd fall
Without each other we would not be at all Aah, like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning

Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
Like I feel the sun in the morning
Like I see the moon at night
