

Love Has Overtaken Us

Dylan Mondegreen

Cynicism has such clamorous voice that is easily heard as man's glamorous choice Something rings clearly as though from afar to illume our minds and kindle our heartsLove has overtaken us Made our pulses pound for a greater causeLove is so that it never was
And it's everything now that it has come to usThere are times when we may have tried harder
But that's dreamy old now replaced with such altarNow our shields are all gone We've laid our armor down and surrender
coz it's all around.Love has overtaken us Now our hearts are pounding
for a greater causeLove is so that it never was
It is everything
now that it has come to usSome values will always last Who wants to turn the wheel Indifference waters down so fast juxtaposed with sinsLove has overtaken us And our hearts are pounding
for a greater causeLove is so that it never was
It is everything
now that it has come to us

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlrics.com/>