

No One Knows My Name (Slap It)

MIYAVI

No one even knows my name
If I wasn't here would it changeI'm invisible, who's to blame
These days are feeling all the sameSlap itNo one knows my name
No one knows my nameMy reflection looks back at me
Tell me who's the man that I've come to be
It's like I've lost, I've lost my way
And now I feel like
No one knows my nameI can't decide how life can change
Should I run or look it face to face
I have a feeling that I've lost control
I have a feeling that
No one knowsNo one even knows my name
If I wasn't here would it changeI'm invisible, who's to blame
These days are feeling all the sameSlap itNo one knows my name
No one knows my nameI look at my life
And what it means
Searching for land when I'm lost at sea
Seems like every step feels like a mile
And all I hear is
"No one knows my name"But now these walls are closing in
And I don't know where to begin
Learn to be what you need to show
Learn how to be what no one knowsNo one even knows my name
If I wasn't here would it changeI'm invisible, who's to blame
These days are feeling all the sameSlap itNo one even knows my name
No one even knows my name
No one even knows my name
If I wasn't here would it changeI'm invisible, who's to blame
These days are feeling all the same
But now I see how life can changeSlap itNo one knows my name
No one knows my name
