

She Was Always On Her Mind

Freya

She met her in an ordinary bar
Having the same blue drink and smiling as she turned to her
She had this feeling that they'd met before
She felt she knew this girl and wished to know her even more
She was always on her mind always, always there
In and outside, all the time and everywhere
She was always in her head always - everywhere
Only sometimes in her bed but always there
Shalalalalalalalalalalalal Shalalalalalalalalalalalal
She seemed to stare at her and slightly smile
She was not beautiful but special so she returned her smile
The girl came over asked her for her name
She kissed her once or twice and then she disappeared again
She was always on her mind always always there
In and outside, all the time - everywhere
She was always in her head always always - everywhere
Only sometimes in her bed but always there
Shalalalalalalalalalalalal Shalalalalalalalalalalalal
