

No Leaf Clover

Metallica

And it feels right this time
On this crash course we're the big time
Pay no mind to the distant thunder
New day fills his head with wonder, boy
Says it feel right this time
Turned it 'round and found the right line
"Good day to be alive, Sir
Good day to be alive", he said
Then it comes to be that the soothing light at the end of your tunnel
Was just a freight train comin' your way
Then it comes to be that the soothing light at the end of your tunnel
Was just a freight train comin' your way, hey, yeah
Don't it feel right like this?
All the pieces fall to his wish
"Sucker for that quick reward, boy
Sucker for that quick reward", they say

Then it comes to be that the soothing light at the end of your tunnel
Was just a freight train comin' your way
Then it comes to be that the soothing light at the end of your tunnel
Was just a freight train comin' your way, hey, yeah
It's comin' your way, it's comin' your way, yeah, yeah, here it comes Yeah, then it comes to be that the soothing light at the end of your tunnel
Was just a freight train comin' your way
Then it comes to be, yeah, yeah
Then it comes to be, yeah, yeah
Then it comes to be, yeah, yeah
Then it comes to be, yeah
Then it comes to be, yeah
Then it comes to be, yeah
Then it comes to be, yeah, yeah
Then it comes to be, yeah
