Shooting Star

Darden Smith

Stop, hey, dont you dare move
Why you always have to go and leave so soon
Dont you know its all so clear
All you have to really do is stay right hereShooting star thats what you areHey, do we have to lose
Why you always have to pack a bag so soon
Why quit, were getting so close
Its hard to love the ones loving you the mostShooting star thats what you are Moving in the wrong directionI say love is a choke, love is a chain, love is a jag
I know, I know and it just keeps coming
Love is a lie, love is a drag, love is insane
I know, I know if you just keep runningOn in a straight line
'Cause you know you got to come back sometime
You cant fight a world so round
When you get back you will have foundA shooting star is what you are
I say a shooting star thats what you are
Youre moving in the wrong directionI say love is a push, love is a dream, love is a shine
I know, I know if you just keep running
Love is a drag, love is a road, love is insane
I know, I know and it just keeps comingLove is a wind, love is the rain, love is the storm
I know, I know, it keeps on blowing
But love is alive, love is a sign, love is a place
I know you know if we just keep goingI know, I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know, I know
I know, I know, I know, I know
