Call My Name

Night Ranger

I hear your voice over the sound of the city
I hear you call my name
And I hear that now you spend your life feeling pity
But who am I to blame
I see that some things never change
Summer kisses never last through September
I thought you'd understand
That holding hands ain't exclusive to lovers
Guess it was part of your plan
The tender moments were part of your plan
I hear you call my name
I hear you call out to me
I hear you call my name
I hear you call out to me
Your silhouette always appears in my window
I close my eyes and hear
The applause of at least a thousand different strangers
And everyone seems sincere
Or did you notice, was it you that I hear?
I hear you call my name
I hear you call out to me
I hear you call my name
I hear you call out to me
I told you once before if you close that door
I'll be gone, yeah yeah
I won't be back for more, I learned before
It's the past, it's the path, it's forgotten
I hear you call
I hear you call out to me
I hear you call my name
I hear you call out to me
I hear you call my name
I hear you call my name
I hear your voice it was the sound of the city
I hear you call my name
I hear you call my name
