

Out Of Sight

Old Boy

Paintings of dogs playin' pool
Smokin' cigarettes they drink 'til they drool
Well we ain't so dumb, just numb
And tomorrow's another year
Could you tell us what happened?
'Cause we weren't here
We've been hitchin' a ride
With a big fake rubber thumb
And you're a star now
Blinkin' bright
And you drive so fast now
Out of sight
The ticker tape wants us to fail
And the limousine just drives us to jail
And the concierge can't tell us
Where the ladies dance
But you are my friend in miles
Radio waves, stations, and dials, and smiles
Cities and towns, slow down
And you're a star now
Blinkin' bright
And you drive so fast now
Out of sight
Out of sight
Out of sight
Ohh, ohh, ohh
And you're a star now
Blinkin' bright
And you drive so fast now
Out of sight
Out of sight
Out of sight
Out of sight
Out of sight
