

Ache

The Honeycutters

I take it easy, but I like you coming around so stop in and see me when you're on my side of town I'll wear a smile on my face but when I see you walking away Baby, I ache I can't seem to tell you but I want this feeling to last as warm as the sunshine, as long as the shadows we cast I'd never ask you to stay Pride won't allow it but all of the same
I ache
Baby, I break When you're near me, my heart starts racing I can't think clearly my knees are shaking when you bring a hand to my face when you hold me and whisper my name Baby, I ache
