

You Were Here

Sarah Harmer

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Are there no blinders on lights that glare?
White noise on the eyes
From gas station lights and reflected ice glare
So that I can walk home by moonlight alone Or can we go out to where the wind howls
And stand to lean up against the trees?
They've grown up so tall that you can't see the house
It's a fortress now but you know how it used to be I can lie to myself
And say I like it
But I would love it if you were here These words on paper smell like you
Associated in random thought
On my lips the words turn blue
Evidence I'm feeling lost I can lie to myself
And say, I like it
But I would love it if you were here I'm just sad for myself
'Cause I know you're clear
But I would love it if you were here I can just see you show me your garden
I thought, you'd grow roses and grapes on low vines
I wanted to know you when we were both older
I thought, there'd be more of those wonderful times I can lie to myself
And say, I like it
But I would love it if you were here I'm just sad for myself
'Cause I know you're clear
But I would love it if you were here You were here
Yes, you were
Yes, you were
