Disguise

A.Tone Da Priest

(Verse 1)
Ive seen the devils face in the center of my eyes
He greets me once again with that same old lame disguise
He drains my shallow soul and just rids me of my core
Every time I think hes gone he keeps coming back for more
(Hook)
Im constantly breaking, these chances Im taking
So sick of the waiting, my life Ive been patient
Im playing with flames, evil feeling my brain
Think Im going insane when Im dealing with Satan
(Verse 2)
Ive seen the brightest lights and the darkest of the days
Been searching for whats right to exhaustion Im a slave
This is just my description of a life that I despise
Every time I think Im done, its just keeping me alive
(Hook)
