

I Believe In You

Bette Midler

I don't believe in superstars
Organic food or foreign cars
I don't believe the price of gold
The certainty of growing old That right is right and left is wrong
And north and south can't get along
And east is east and west is west
And being first is always best But I believe in love
I believe in babies
I believe in mom and dad
And I believe in you I don't believe that heaven waits
For those that only congregate
I like to think of God as love
He's down below, He's up above He's watching people everywhere
He knows who does and doesn't care
And I'm an ordinary man
Who sometimes wonders who I am But I believe in love
I believe in music
I believe in magic
And I believe in you Well, I know with all my certainty
What's going on with you and me
Is a good thing and it's true
And I believe in you Well, I don't believe virginity
Is as common as it used to be
In working days and sleeping nights
That black is black and white is white That Superman and Robin Hood
Are still alive in Hollywood
And gasoline's in short supply
The rising cost of getting by I believe in love
I believe in old folks
I believe in children
And I believe in you
