

Endless Helpless Hoping

Josh Gracin

Endless, helpless, hopin'
Endless, helpless, hopin' Let me understate how I adore
How I admire and more
And walk a hole in the floor Like a fast freight train screamin' through the dark
Makin' a penny in my heart
And that's just where it starts My lonely nights turn to days
My lonely days turn to how my life is goin'
Endless, helpless, hopin'
I can dream and I can believe
But you're the only one who can heal
This heart that's broken
Endless, helpless, hopin' All the words that I write just don't impress
They don't leave my desk
And like me, it's a mess I try to tell you but you tell me that you're my friend
How could I let that end?
So I just let you love him My lonely nights turn to days
My lonely days turn to how my life is goin'
Endless, helpless, hopin'
I can dream and I can believe
But you're the only one who can heal
This heart that's broken
Endless, helpless, hopin' Now I know how a widow starin' at the sea feels Waitin' for a ship to come home
Waitin' there all alone My lonely nights turn to days
My lonely days turn to how my life is goin'
Endless, helpless, hopin'
I can dream and I can believe
But you're the only one who can heal
This heart that's broken
Endless, helpless, hopin'
