Karma

NLT

OoooIt's a shame
You see that I'm hurtin' and you don't know what you did
You probably don't even care to know what it is
You promised that you were down and you were my best friend
Was it all for nothin'?How could you go right when I needed you?
You never showed the love that I'm always showin' to you
Now you know that I'm gonna leave you
You're tellin' me no 'cause it's gonna hurt you
Feelin' so coldI wanted to know you but karma's a trip now
You probably shouldn't have left me standing alone
I wanted to love you but karma's a trip now
You probably should turn around and take yourself home
Karma, karmaIt's just karma, karma
It's just karma's a tripYou're the flame
I keep runnin' back to you
(Back to you)
I feel the painI keep runnin' to you thinkin' that somethin's gonna change
But now that the story is over
I'm turnin' the page, baby, you're historyHow could you go right when I needed you?
You never showed the love that I'm always showin' to you
Now you know that I'm gonna leave you
You're tellin' me no 'cause it's gonna hurt you
Feelin' so coldI wanted to know you but karma's a trip now
You probably shouldn't have left me standin' alone
I wanted to love you but karma's a trip now
You probably should turn around and take yourself home
Karma, karmaIt's just karma, karma
It's just karma's a tripWhat goes around comes around
No more me and you
(Me and you and you)
The tables have turned around
And now I'm lettin' you go, go, go
(Hey, yeah)I wanted to know you but karma's a trip now
You probably shouldn't have left me standin' alone
I wanted to love you but karma's a trip now
You probably should turn around and take yourself home
Karma, karmaIt's just karma, karma
It's just karma's a tripI wanted to know you but karma's a trip now
You probably shouldn't have left me standin' alone

I wanted to love you but karma's a trip now
You probably should turn around and take yourself home
Karma, karmaIt's just karma, karma
It's just karma's a trip
