Can't Wake Up

Treble Charger

What's so wrong with me now?
Am I different somehow?
Don't feel like I'm quite the same
Got to thinking againAnd I know I can't win
So I won't even play that game
Throw a drink in my face
If you have any tasteTake me out and erase my mind
Kick me now that I'm down
Try to knock me around
Drive me into the ground this timeNow that I've lost my place
I could really use more spaceI live in a daze
And I can't change and I can't wake up
Don't know what to say
It's something strange that I can't make upSomething's missing today
It's been taken away
Won't let anything stay the sameAll those nights in a row
Can't be high when I'm low
I've got only myself to blameKind of feeling bruised and worn
Can't weather out this stormI live in a daze
I can't change and I can't wake up
Don't know what to say
It's something strange that I can't make upI'm not trying to make a statement
I'm trying to hang on
Knock me to the pavement
In moments I'll be goneI live in a daze
I can't change and I can't wake up
Don't know what to say
It's something strange that I can't make upI live in a daze
I can't change and I can't wake up
Don't know what to say
It's something strange that I can't make up
