

Let's Be Honest

Doll Skin

Do I make you feel awkward
Does it look like I care
Got no filter to show forever
So helpless standing there
Take your words and take your torch Throw them in the nearest stream Let's be honest
I'm a superhero
Let's be honest
I'm gonna save the day
Let's be honest
Don't need no dramma
No dramatic display
Do I seem a little strange?
Does it look like I care
You and I are so different
But that's okay, 'cus I wear cute underwear
Throw your rage and throw your hate
Throw them away, away from me Let's be honest
I'm a superhero
Let's be honest
I'm gonna save the day
Let's be honest
Don't need no dramma
No dramatic display (I'm a super hero)
Don't try to run
Don't try to scream
Let's be honest
I'm a superhero
Let's be honest
I'm gonna save the day
Let's be honest
Don't need no dramma
No dramatic display Let's be honest
I'm a superhero
Let's be honest
I'm gonna save the day
Let's be honest
Don't need no dramma
No dramatic display
