Telepathy

Lene Lovich

I know what ya done
I saw ya in my crystal
I saw you making love
I'm gonna get my pistolTelepathy's gonna be the death of me
Telepathy's gonna be the death of meI know what ya done before you even do it
Don't tell me yer story I can see through itLove is really mutual trust
Respect and understanding is a must
But my baby's mind is like a TV
And everthing I see make a fool of meI know what you've done, yeah
You think I don't know
You been playing round with Mrs. So-And-SoTelepathy's gonna be the death of meOh, those little lies
Right, behind your eyes
I don't need no spies
With my ESP
You're not fooling me
But ohhhhhh, the jealousyLove is really mutual trust
(la-la-la-la-la)
Respect and understanding is a must (la-la-la)
But my babys' mind is like a T.V.
(ah-ha, ah-ha)
And everything I see makes a fool of me.I know what you done, I saw you in my crystal
I saw you making love; I'm gonna get my pistolTelepathy's gonna be the death of me
Telepathy's gonna be the death of meTelepathy (telepathy)
Telepathy
(telepathy)
