

Defiance

We Came As Romans

Ready to defy, ready to resist
Open up these walls built to keep you out
Going stronger with every struggle
Like a wave crashing into the shore each time
Can't be stopped with your emotion
As we repossess the ocean
Still my walls stand high I can feel these walls, feel them closing in
(But I'm) but I'm not falling apart again
(I still hear) I can hear their words, still won't let them in (Cause I'm), 'cause I'm not falling apart again I'm not falling apart again, I'm not falling apart Ready to contend, ready to withstand
Open up these walls built to keep you out
Nothing you say can make me give up
I'm persistent like a river cuts through a rock Keeping crushing I won't give in I'm as steadfast as I've always been Still the walls stand high I can feel these walls, feel them closing in
(But I'm) but I'm not falling apart again
(I still hear) I can hear their words, still won't let them in (Cause I'm), 'cause I'm not falling apart again I, judge of my faith, I can't live on like this I'll never give in judge of my faith, I will never appease (I'll never give in)
I'll never give in Still the walls stand high I can feel these walls, feel them closing in
(But I'm) but I'm not falling apart again
(I still hear) I can hear their words, still won't let them in (Cause I'm), 'cause I'm not falling apart again I'm not falling apart again, I'm not falling apart I, judge of my faith, I can't live on like this I'll never give in
judge of my faith, I will never appease (I'll never give in)
