Said It All

Take That

Ooh, when the tears fall away

And there's no conversation

There's nothing left to break

That's not already brokenYou're staring into space

And every inch of silence

Been standing here for days

And daysSaid it all

Nothing to say at all

Nothing to say that matters

Haven't we heard enoughSaid it all

Nothing to say at all

Nothing to say that matters

Doesn't matter, anymoreIn the sudden light of day

No weight of expectation

The hurt begins to fade

As you find a new direction

Been talking here for days

And days, and daysSaid it all

Nothing to say at all

Nothing to say that matters

Haven't we heard enoughSaid it all

Nothing to say at all

Nothing to say that matters

Doesn't matter, anymore, oohAll of the miles of words we've spoken

All of the lines that got away

Didn't we take the time to say them allAll of the miles of words we've spoken

All of the lines that got away

Didn't we take the time to say them allSaid it all

Nothing to say at all

Nothing to say that matters

Haven't we heard enoughSaid it all

Nothing to say at all

Nothing to say that matters

Haven't we said it all
