Outside My Window

Ten Years After

Outside my window, rain fallin' down,
Call for my woman, no-where around.
I hear laughter, outside in the hall,
Outside my window, I see nothing at all.

There's a star in the night and it's shining so bright,
I could swear it was callin' to me.
There's a hope in my heart that is broken apart,
and the pain for a moment is free.

Outside my window, there's a light burning bright,
and it keeps on callin' me into the night.
Outside my window, something callin' me.
Outside my window, someone waits for me.

How long I wonder, can this go on ?
I had it all, now it is gone.
So lonely, here with the blues,
I never knew I had so much to lose.

There's a star in the night and it's shining so bright,
I could swear it was callin' to me.
There's a hope in my heart that is broken apart,
and the pain for a moment is free.

Outside my window, there's a light burning bright,
and it keeps on callin' me into the night.
Outside my window, something callin' me.
Outside my window, someone waits for me.

I feel so lonely, life got me down,
I call all my friends, but they're all out of town.
I keep on seaching, trying to find Someone to love me, let me ease my worried mind.

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com
written by LEE, ALVIN/GOULD, STEPHEN BURT Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/