

Tornado

Los Halos

Upon a wave
The queen lay bare
Her crest of rain
And golden hair

I'm reaching with
A fingers smoke
To one's cling
Must now let go
Must now let go

We're caught between
A touch of skin
And answers grace
A dream within
A hammer's wind
And rains collide

Break my love
Tornadoes bright
Tornadoes bright

My rage is white
My eyes are green
My heart is gold
My heart is gold
Can I pretend?
I must break real
My deepest heart
For you I feel
For you I feel

My rage is white
My eyes are green
My heart is gold
My heart is gold
Can I pretend?
I must break real
My deepest heart
For you I feel (26x)

For you
