Alpha Rev

Will you meet me at the well
you're my heaven
in this, my hell
I see visions
a candle burns
Brothers fall battles turn and tear us apartI've suffered losses it's hard to heal and you're my only strength of will oh, morning near the flag is calling oh... find me here inside these red word lettersTears in the reveille dreaming of a symphony
standing at the firing line smoke in the fields of Lexington see you in the cannon's glow feel you in the ground below you will be the ocean on smoke in the fields of LexingtonWedding vows upon my chest
valleys burn
with blood and flesh
walking ghosts
fading starts
through thees words you hold my heartoh, morning near the flag is calling
smoke in the fields of LexingtonGive our children my goodbye and tell them how

if they ask why
lay one flower
upon the stone
one last kiss to send me homeTears in the reveille
smoke in the fields of LexingtonDeathless love of mine, I want you...
