Justified

A Day to Remember

Burn me alive. If you feel that's justified.
I need more than faith, to see you on the other side.
Can you hear me? The lowly one.
Do you fear me? You righteous ones.Bow down to whole earth's creation,
Every man of every nation,
Who's right and wrong at times like these?Burn me alive. If you feel that's justified.
I need more than faith, to see you on the other side.
Can you hear me? The lowly one.
Do you fear me? You righteous ones.I believe in a life before death,
That happiness and virtue coexist,
And if you only believe to hedge the bet,
You're gonna pay your debt!Burn me alive. If you feel that's justified.
I need more than faith, to see you on the other side.
The lowly ones, need more than this,
To see you on the other side, the other side.Burn me alive. Feel nothing, leave nothing, learn nothing.
Then be on your way, be on your way.Do you fear me? You righteous ones.
Can you hear me? The lowly one, the lowly ones.

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/