I Come Undone

Jennifer Rush

Time heals the wounded
But my heart still bleeds
I can't get you out of my life
Here's my confession:
You're all I need
I don't want to love you but oh, oh, ohWith the touch of your hand
I come undone
With the flash of your burning eyes I know
That you're the only one
I come, I come undone
I come undoneYour footsteps are heartbeats
There's knocking at my door
(There's knocking at my door)
I swore that I won't let you in
Love's got its heroes
But I know that I just Can't hold out forever and oh, oh, ohWith the touch of your hand
I come undone
With the flash of your burning eyes I know
That you're the only one
I come, I come undone
I come undoneDon't know what you're doing to me
'Cause when your arms reach out I'm goneHere's my confession:
You're all that I need
I don't want to love you but oh, oh, ohWith the touch of your hand
I come undone
With the flash of your burning eyes I know
That you're the only one
I come, I come undone
I come undone(I come, I come, I come undone)
I come undone
(I come, I come, I come undone)
I come undone
(I come, I come, I come undone)
I come undone
(I come, I come, I come undone)
I come undone
