Cascade

Deluka

You are with me when I'm burning bright
And you're with me in the dim lit lie
And you see me when I'm out of face
I'm forked lightning on the dark days
I shake awake, I made a mistake
I devastate sparks over the place
Pulse race, eyes glazed
You don't know, you don't even know me

My heart beats like a drum
And I know I'm not the only one
On, off like a light switch
Sometimes I don't know where you're coming from

My heart beats like a drum
And I know I'm not the only one
On, off like a light switch
Sometimes I don't know where you're coming from

I want your temper when it's burning hot
Cause it hurts me like a thousand watts
You spit fire and it makes me run away
It cuts deep like a switchblade
Fade in, fade out
And don't make me shout
When words hit walls the nights go out
Nights crash, eyes flash
You don't know, you don't even know me

My heart beats like a drum
And I know I'm not the only one
On, off like a light switch
Sometimes I don't know where you're coming from

My heart beats like a drum
And I know I'm not the only one
On, off like a light switch
Sometimes I don't know where you're coming from

My heart beats like a drum

And I know I'm not the only one
On, off like a light switch
Sometimes I don't know where you're coming from

My heart beats like a drum
And I know I'm not the only one
On, off like a light switch
Sometimes I don't know where you're coming from

It's all over, it's all over
It's all over, it's all over
It's all over, it's all over
It's all over, it's all over
