Ghost

The Autumn Offering

Where were you in this world?
Where were you? I don't know
I gave it all and you gave none
What's left inside is left undoneThis time confronted , with all these ghosts I'm haunted
Won't you bear my shame?
I made this mistake, I hate to hear these words nowI'll walk this path no more
Now when you're looking down, down upon me
Well, don't you try and forget what this timeWhere were you in this world?
Where were you? I don't know
I gave it all and you gave noneWhat's left inside is left undone
I gave it all, you gave it none
It's been so long since you have goneYou had the world, you threw it out
It'll all come back too
