

See the Lights Go Out

Andy Bell

I see the lights go out in heaven
I see the stars fall out of the sky
It's so good I'm alive I feel a sense of desperation
Gives me a fever I can't describe Will this feeling last forever?
I don't know
Will I make a break for freedom if I try?
When I saw your face I couldn't speak
I could die
Now I'm searching for the angels in the sky
I thought that I was going nowhere
Until the day you walked into my life
With a will to survive
Could this be my last temptation
Is it real?
Or am I scared to go inside? I hope this vision lasts forever
I don't know
Could this be the last mutation in my life?
When I saw your face
Carved into the stone
I'd arrived
Now I'm searching for the angels in the sky I hope this dream will last forever
Though I scarcely can believe my own eyes
I wish that we could be together
Eternally
But I'm loving this sensation tonight
When I saw your face
I couldn't speak
Got to believe
Now I'm searching for the angels in the sky
