Alone

Claude Kelly

I never really been the type to be superstitious.
And I wouldn't say that I'm super religious.
But lately I've been praying and hoping and wishing.
Is anyone out there willing to listen.
I'm kind of worried about the world that we live in.
It's time to stand up but everyone's sitting.
Mothers are crying all night long, waiting for their kids to come home.
Does anybody see that something's wrong.
(Yeah yeah yeah.)
The earth we live in today.
Is never ever gonna be the same.
If we don't wake up and make a change.
(No, tell me.)Am I all alone.
Am I all alone.
Is there anybody out there hearing my song.
Is anybody home.
Is anybody home.
Is there anybody out there feeling that something's wrong.
Let me here you say; "Woah oh oh."What good is a heart if there ain't love in it.
What good are your eyes if you ain't got vision.
What good is the world if we can't all fit in.
See all along, we ain't that different.
All tryna get by and raise our children.
Love and pain, yeah we share the same feelings.Mothers are crying all night long, waiting for their kids to come home.
Does anybody see that something's wrong.
(Yeah yeah yeah.)
The earth we live in today.
Is never ever gonna be the same.
If we don't wake up and make a change.
(No, tell me.)Am I all alone.
Am I all alone.
Is there anybody out there hearing my song.
Is anybody home.
Is anybody home.
Is there anybody out there feeling that something's wrong.
Let me here you say; "Woah oh oh."Give peace the chance.
Give love a chance.
Give unity a chance.

I need to know.
Am I alone.Am I all alone.
Am I all alone.
Is there anybody out there hearing my song.
Is anybody home.
Is anybody home.
Is there anybody out there feeling something's wrong.
Let me here you say; "Woah oh oh."Am I all alone.
Am I by myself.
Am I all alone (yeah)Is anybody home.
Is anybody home.
(let me hear you say; "Woah oh oh."
