

Kid Becomes the Dream

Aiden

I got your letter, read that mom was gone
(Mom was gone)
I never thought that dad would ever lose his mind
(Lose his mind)
Well, I haven't slept it seems like a week long
(All week long)
And I've prayed a thousand times To a God who doesn't take requests
And all I hear is kid
Become the dream, become the dream
You said it once, I've heard it twice
You'll always make mistakes in life
Become the dream, become the dream Well, I held this letter in my hand
And start to shake then wonder is the end
Is this the end?
Well, I took for granted
All the things you've given me, I say this is the end
Is this the end? Well, I raise my fist, shout and scream
I won't resist this life
Become the dream, become the dream
