

Debris

Faces

I left you on the debris
At the Sunday morning market
You were sorting through the odds and ends
You was looking for a bargain I heard your footsteps at the front door
And that old familiar love song
'Cause you knew you'd find me waiting there
At the top of the stairs I went there and back
Just to see how far it was
And you, you tried to tell me
But I had to learn for myself There's more trouble at the depot
With the general workers union
And you said, "They'll never change a thing
Well, they won't fight and they're not working" Oh, you was my hero
How you are my good friend
I've been there and back
And I know how far it is But I left you on the debris
Now we both know you got no money
And I wonder what you would have done
Without me hanging around
