

Forget Me Now

Against The Current

Dear whoever, do you remember?
It's me, old whatshername
Can't believe it, you ain't dreaming
I don't look quite the sameBut history repeats itself
I kept making a scene
I kept raising hell
Now they call me a queen
And you're under my spell
Tell me how does it feel?
Well...I'm looking down from the skyline
Dancing on the moonlight
Can you see my name in the stars?
Yeah, I bet you won't forget me now
My voice on the airwaves
It's echoing louder and louder
I bet you won't forget me now
I bet you won't forget me nowHey whoever, it's been forever
I know you know my name
I heard you're still trying to steal my throne
I guess some things never changeAlways knew I'd make it out
Live a life you dream about
And now the world's in my hands
According to planI'm looking down from the skyline
Dancing on the moonlight
Can you see my name in the stars?
Yeah, I bet you won't forget me now
My voice on the airwaves
Echoing louder and louder
I bet you won't forget me now
I bet you won't forget me nowSaid you were gonna run this town
Now you just get high and drive around
It didn't happen like you thought it would, yeah
Hit me up like "hope you're good
And "can you put me on the list tonight?
And by the way I've got this clothing line"
Try to talk like we're old friends
But you don't even know who I amI'm looking down from the skyline
Dancing on the moonlight
Can you see my name in the stars?

Yeah, I bet you won't forget me now
My voice on the airwaves
Echoing louder and louder
I bet you won't forget me now
I bet you won't forget me now I bet you won't forget me now
I bet you won't forget me now
I bet you won't
