

Can't Take Me Home

Pink

Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've of thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me
'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me

Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me
'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me
Why do you even talk to me? Baby were you curious?
You know you never had a love like this
My love was serious had you delirious
Don't front I found it in every kiss
You try and play me now I ain't your lady
When you just told me that you loved me
And you want me as your baby understand me

I new we can't be just as happy as anybody let your mom feel me baby

Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've of thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me
'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me

Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've of thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me
'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me
What the hell was on your mind? You thought I had the time
To be your little undercover thing but see I can't deal with that
So better just split with that
Come at me real quick playin' these silly games
How can you love me? And then just leave me
Because you see somebody looking and you think they disagree
Well they don't feed you so why you care boo?
'Cause the best love you ever had is right here with you

Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've of thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me
'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me

Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've of thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me

'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me
I don't want nobody else but you
If you keep playing then I'll make you the fool 'cause it's a Pink thing
If you're a man who would wanna get with me, oh it's a Pink thing
To you your mama, you're just gonna have to see
Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've of thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me
'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me
Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've of thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me
'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me
Can't take me home to mama 'cause she wouldn't think I'm proper
Should've of thought about that before you fucked with me
Don't say you're fallin' for me, don't tell me you adore me
'Cause all you're thinking 'bout is fucking me
