Kiss The Air

Danny Calvert

If I stay with you
I would live a lie,
For you deserve a love
This heart cannot provide.
So I wish you well,
And be on my way.I'm not the one who could
Give you what you need,
So I bid you farewell,
But don't you dare watch me leave.I didn't mean to
Hurt you this way,
But I'm not what you need,
So I guess I'll just be on my way.One day you'll wake up,
And thank me for what I did
When you're living your happy life
Behind your white fence,
New husband, and kids.Like a captured bird
Who yearns to sail the sky,
I will unlock your cage now,
So prepare to fly.
And I'll kiss the air,
And hope it finds you well.
Goodbye.I'm not the one who could
Give you what you need,
So I bid you farewell,
But don't you dare watch me leave.I didn't mean to
Hurt you this way,
But I'm not what you need,
So I guess I'll just be on my way.One day you'll wake up,
And thank me for what I did
When you're living your happy life
Behind your white fence,
New husband, and kids.I didn't mean to
Hurt you this way,
But I'm not what you need,
So I guess I'll just be on my way.One day you'll wake up,
And thank me for what I did
When you're living your happy life
Behind your white fence,
New husband, and kids.So I'll kiss the air,

And hope it finds you well.
Goodbye.
