Remind Me to Forget (You)

MAKUTA

Verse

Blinds shut, the light peeks under

Why, oh why, should I even bother?

Everything brings back a memory of you

I don't sleep, I toss and turn

I silently swim, unconscious and burn

Everything comes back to you

Chorus

Remind me to forget you

Remind me to forget you

Verse

Tear stained, with bloodshot eyes

I can't recall, what a heartbeat feels like

All that remains brings back a memory of you

As shadows dance against my wall

They mimic me, as I barely crawl

And I can't erase their lines from view

Chorus

Remind me to forget you

Remind me to forget you

Bridge

I'm a prisoner, shackled to the floor

Watching the sun rise and fall

I'm a prisoner, shackled to the floor

Watching the sun rise and fall

Chorus

Remind me to forget you

Remind me to forget you

I'm a prisoner, shackled to the floor
