You Look Good With Me

Jagged Edge

[Verse 1:]I ain't no hater or nothing, I think you look good with me.
You look as good with me as you do with as you do with Gucci never been no hater babe you can check my resume
Not the type of guy that you can say was perfect,
I wont leave you all alone,
You need that type of loving I got,
Everything that he not,
Don't worry if you blowin up my phone,
I'ma let everyone who sees her know that your mine,
We ain't gotta lie, lie, we ain't gotta hide, hide, ooh, ooh, ohh, I get so happy when i hear that lil ooh, ooh, baby me and you just sound so simple, [Chorus:]I know we did wrong, baby we all do wrong but you say its too late, ooh, ooh, ooh.
He need to move on, baby he need to move on and let me get straight ooh, ooh, ooh,
[Bridge:]Never been no hater baby I'm just saying,
since you're so unhappy maybe you look good with me yeaaah
Put one hand in the air, if you're in love with someone who attempts to think you look good with me.
[Verse 2:]If your man ain't right, you know, get gone, get gone.
You stay when there's no love & just want to fold
Besides, besides, besides, I I I can be your man baby

[Chorus:]I know we did wrong, baby we all do wrong but you say its too late, ooh, ooh, ooh.
He need to move on, baby he need to move on and let me get straight ooh, ooh, ooh [Bridge:]Never been no hater baby I'm just saying,
since you're so unhappy maybe you look good with me yeaaah
Put one hand in the air, if you're in love with someone who attempts to think you look good with me.
Girl you shine,
The way you shine, the way you shine, shine, the way you shine girl you stay on mind, mind.
Never been no hater, baby I'm just saying, since you're so unhappy maybe you look good with me.
I don't hate girl, but maybe you can call it hatin, I'm hatin cuz you look good with me.
I don't hate girl but maybe you can call it hatin, I'm hatin cuz you look good with me [Bridge:]Never been no hater baby I'm just saying,
since you're so unhappy maybe you look good with me yeaaah put your hands in the air if you see whatever you sayin baby you look good with me
Girl you shine,
The way you shine, the way you shine, shine, the way you shine girl you stay on mind, mind.
Never been no hater baby I'm just saying, since you're so unhappy maybe you look good with me

You look as good with me as you do with as you do with Gucci never been no hater man you can check my resume
