Surrender

Third Day

When the day began and you opened up your eyes
No, you didn't recognize what you were seeing
Then it all came back, you remembered where you've been Well, it never seems to end and you're still running
Will you ever change your mind?
You're almost out of time
You better give up, gotta stop running
It's the end of the line, it's time to surrender
Hands up, turn it around
Fall to the ground, are you gonna surrender?
Now the day is done and you want to close your eyes
And pretend that you are fine but you'd be lying
And you want it back, the life that you once had
'Cause inside you find that you are slowly dying
Will you ever change your mind?
You're almost out of time
You better give up, gotta stop running
It's the end of the line, it's time to surrender
Hands up, turn it around
Fall to the ground, are you gonna surrender?
Give up, gotta stop running
It's the end of the line, it's time to surrender
Hands up, turn it around
Fall to the ground, are you gonna surrender?
Oh yeah
Are you gonna surrender? Oh yeah
You better give up, gotta stop running
It's the end of the line, it's time to surrender
Hands up, turn it around
Fall to the ground, yeah
You better give up, gotta stop running
It's the end of the line, it's time to surrender
Hands up, turn it around
Fall to the ground, are you gonna surrender?
Yeah, are you gonna surrender?
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Surrender, surrender
