

Sahara Pt. I

Bear's Den

In the desert sun your freckles they show and you can feel her now right in between your toes and you are as alone as they all said you'd be And as the sun beats down hard upon your skin yeah you can feel her now and all that you can go without within a flower grows and though nobody asked it to a bluebird sings and won't let herself go out of tune
