You Know Where My Heart Is

Deborah Cox

Wasting time arguing
Like it's become my occupation
Only pain for compensation
You're juggling so many things
It's like you bring in for conversation
But you already know
Baby, you're the only one I see
No matter what the circumstance might be
Even though it's rough sometimes, sometimes
And even though it ain't always pretty
You know you can always lean on me
When I'm by your side, I'm by your side
You know where my heart is, baby
I need to breathe again
And when we're apart it's so hard
My heart needs to beat again
As time passes seasons change
Even through this crazy weather
My love for you remains
Like flowers we need sun and rain to grow
And when you're caught out in the rain
Hope you know you're not alone
You know where my heart is, baby
I need to breathe again
And when we're apart it's so hard
My heart needs to beat again
You should know, you should know
You already know
You never, never know
Say you never know
Just how much you mean to me
You know where my heart is, baby
I need to breathe again
And when we're apart it's so hard
My heart needs to beat again
And we're hurting ourselves, yeah, we're hurting ourselves
When we playing with each other's mind, baby
We're playing with each other's mind, yeah
And we're hurting ourselves, now we're hurting ourselves

When we playing with each other's mind, yeah, whoa, baby
You should know, whoa
