Angels Dance

The Martins

The Father smiles, and sheds a tear
A tear of joy that's just for you
He gathers all of Heaven near
And tells them of your wondrous newsHeaven and Earth are telling a story
A new soul is forgiven
There's a new name written in glory
Can you feel the rhythm?
Can you feel the rhythm...As Angels dance, run and leap
Pirouette down golden streets
Like lonely hearts that find romance
All Heaven sighs when angels
They Clap there hands
And Laugh out loud
And then they sing as glorious song
They strum their harpsAnd spread their wings
And I can't help but sing alongDancing down the streets of the Holy City
Moving to the music of a heavenly beat
I can hear the angels singing Hallelujah
Moving their hands, moving their feetHeaven and Earth are telling a story
A new soul is forgiven
There's a new name written in glory
Can you feel the rhythm?
Can you feel the rhythm...
Angels dance
Run and leap
Pirouette down golden streets
Like lonely hearts
All heaven sighs and angels dance
Oh, heaven sighs and angels dance
