

Time of My Life

Bill Medley & Jennifer Warnes

From the east to the south
I tongue the roof of my mouth
To new days of doubt without you

First gear
I face the trouble ahead
Final word's been said
Long distance spread between us

I tell myself to
Hold on, won't be long
Till I grow through this struggle

Time to wake up
Find my soul
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Not called for weeks now
It's six days without sleep means
I am a slave to my early grave
If I do not be brave, behave
Seize myself out of this mess
I have created of myself yet again
Yet again I say
Hold on, won't be long

Till I grow through this struggle
Time to wake up
Find my soul
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
We go on, heart beats strong
Still whole, unbroken
As we divide our love goodbye
Thanks for the time, time of my life
Happy without you

Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Time, time of my life
Time, time of my life
(So happy without you)
Time, time of my life
Thanks for the time of my life
(Happy without you, happy without you)
Happy without you
