

Bittersweet (A Jedi Force)

Falling Up

Release the gate of beautiful, I am staying down to hide in rooms away
These tears they build me up a house,
Then they pour on down and wash the house away
And I am left to fight the waves (he's around me constantly)[Chorus]
I kissed these lonely tears I shed goodbye
Because I'm bittersweet, without you father there's no reason Hold up my heart it makes me feel,
Like these rooms will close in locking all the doors
With these hands and broken stones,
I have built a legacy and now it's time to move on He's around me constantly
So get off of my soul
