

Everything But My Pride (92 Remix)

Cutting Crew

If you should walk away
Take this broken heart
And if you walk away
You'll never know what's left behindGo on and get away
Don't you leave a trace
And as you walk away
You can take most everyEverything but my pride
Everything but the rings on my finger
Everything but my prideI like the room this way
I like this bed unmade
We never laughed enough
But you laugh alone todaySo don't you ever say
You feel that you've
Had all you can take
You've already takenEverything but my pride
Everything but the rings on my finger
Everything but my pride
Everything but the rings on my fingerI never thought it'd come to this (Keep walkin')
Never known a night like this
(Keep walkin')Never thought you'd walk away
(Keep walkin')
But you did
When we'd almost made itEverything but my pride
Everything but the rings on my finger
Everything but my pride
You can take everything
But you'll leave me, leave me with my prideEverything, everything
Everything, everything
Everything, everything but my pride
Everything but the rings on my finger[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]
Everything
